Announcements for Mission and Ministry

August 20- 6pm-Ad Council Meeting in the conference room.

We welcome Rev. Angela Roberson as our guest pastor.

Angela and her family are recent transplants to North Carolina from South Louisiana. She has an undergraduate degree from Nicholls State University (BA in Literary Studies), will complete her Master of Divinity from Southern Methodist University this summer, and is currently a certified candidate for ordained ministry in the United Methodist Church. She currently serves on staff at West Market Street UMC as the Connection & Engagement Coordinator.

Angela is passionate about reaching new people, church revitalization, and creating meaningful worship spaces in the church. She loves chasing new ideas and getting creative to help connect people both inside and outside of the faith community. She has served in family ministry, pastoral ministry, and planted a vibrant church plant in South Louisiana before relocating to Greensboro.

When not reading, writing, making spreadsheets, and connecting people to community, you can find Angela at home with her family. She and her husband, Zac, just celebrated 20 years of marriage and they share two children: Koen (20) and Shae (16); they also have two pets, Fitz (dog) and Percy (kitten). Together they love to listen to music, cook big meals, play board games, travel, hike, and camp.
